MISSION CRITICAL PARTNERS, INC. WELCOMES JOHN CONKLIN

Public Safety and Emergency Management Veteran Added to Growing Staff

STATE COLLEGE, PA, December 29, 2011 — Mission Critical Partners, Inc. (MCP), an innovative leader in mission critical and life safety communications, is pleased to welcome John R. Conklin as Project Manager to its team of consultants working from the Harrisburg, PA office. “John’s 35 years of broad experience in the public safety and emergency services field makes him an ideal manager to advocate for our clients on their projects,” said Kevin Murray, President. “We look forward to utilizing his knowledge as we continue to support our life and public safety clients.”

John will be applying the knowledge and expertise he gained from having served as County Administrator for Northampton County, PA, where he facilitated effective operations of emergency service to achieve client success. This is in addition to the application of leadership attributes gained from his roles as Emergency Management Coordinator for the City of Miami, FL; Emergency Program Manager for the Domestic Security and Public Safety Program in Broward County, FL; and as Emergency Management Services Director for Lehigh County, PA.

In recognition of his dedicated service to public safety and emergency management, John earned several awards including “Exceptional Service in the Public Interest” from the FBI and “The Mayor’s Award for Valor” from the City of Harrisburg, PA. John is recognized as a Certified Emergency Manager (CEM) from the International Association of Emergency Managers (IAEM), and serves as a two-term USA-CEM Commissioner and a Region 3 officer.
