PENNSYLVANIA'S SECRETARY C. ALLEN WALKER VISITS MISSION CRITICAL PARTNERS
Mr. Walker leads PA's Department of Community and Economic Development

STATE COLLEGE, PA, SEPTEMBER 27, 2011 — Showing continued commitment to growing Pennsylvania businesses, Secretary C. Allen Walker of PA's Department of Community and Economic Development (DCED) honored Mission Critical Partners (MCP) with a visit to its State College, Pennsylvania corporate headquarters on September 20, 2011. Along with MCP staff, Len Kowalski (Senior Vice President), an industry leader in public safety mission critical communication, greeted Secretary Walker. Len spoke passionately of MCP's expertise in leading both national and Pennsylvania based public safety communications solutions. MCP's dedication to Pennsylvania commerce development is supported by an ongoing relationship with Ben Franklin Technology Partners of central and northern Pennsylvania.

MCP provides innovative consultative services for life safety and mission critical systems throughout North America. With a staff of over 30, MCP's team includes former public safety managers, project management professionals (PMP's), emergency number professionals (ENP's) and technology, forensic and policy specialists. MCP's service areas include: Executive Consulting/Master Planning; Next-Generation 9-1-1; Facility/Technology Integration; Broadband Deployment; Consolidation Services; Emergency Management Communications; Land Mobile Radio; and Forensics/Systems Analysis. Headquartered in State College, PA, MCP maintains satellite offices in Harrisburg, PA and Southlake, TX. Additional MCP information is available at mcp911.com.
