MISSION CRITICAL PARTNERS, INC. EXPANDS TO PITTSBURGH

Growing Emergency Communication Firm Adds New Office in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania

STATE COLLEGE, PA, January 5, 2012 — Mission Critical Partners, Inc. (MCP) is pleased to announce the opening of the firm's newest office in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. The addition of the Pittsburgh office expands MCP's presence in Pennsylvania to include the corporate headquarters in State College and a regional office in Harrisburg. The Company also has an office in Southlake, Texas. "The opening of this office marks an important step in our growth, said Kevin Murray, President. Pittsburgh is a key area for MCP to develop our services." MCP's continued expansion enabled the addition of this new office to support the growing number of clients and staff in western Pennsylvania.

Jim Bitting, Senior Technical Specialist/Project Manager, will serve as the regional office coordinator for MCP's Pittsburgh office. The new office can be found at 6021 Wallace Road Ext. Suite 200, Wexford, PA 15090. The phone number is 888.862.7911.

MCP provides innovative consultative services for life safety and mission critical systems throughout North America. With a staff of over 35, MCP's team includes former public safety managers, project management professionals, emergency number professionals and technology, forensic and policy specialists. MCP's service areas include: Executive Consulting/Master Planning; NG9-1-1; Facility/Technology Integration; Broadband Deployment; Consolidation Services; Emergency Management Communications; Land Mobile Radio; and Forensics/Systems Analysis. Headquartered in State College, PA, MCP supports clients with offices in Harrisburg, PA, Pittsburgh, PA, and Southlake, TX.
